

SLEP (student learning easiest platform )

What is the SLEP?

SLEP is a software that can convenience SLIIT student's day today life in a efficient way. Through this app we can get all the details about time tables , remaining time for the next lecture , the venue of lecture hall and the resource details for the upcoming lecture.

When you open this application you will log in to the logging page. Through the sign in option you can create your own account. After that you can log in to the application through login page.

There are four main features in this application. If we describe more, it categories like wise

1. Support page- Display all the supportive links through this page
2. Home Page – In this page you can check your all lectures scheduled to that date
3. Timetable Page – In this page you can check your week time table .
4. Settings – It display the profile details and the help center details